

Free Coffee

Ben Folds

Called in sick one day
Stepped out my front door.
Squinted up at the sky and strapped on my backpack.
Got into a van and when I returned I had ex-wives and children,
boxes of photographs

And they gave me some food and they didn't charge me and they gave me some coffee but they didn't charge me and when I was broke I needed it more.
But now that I'm rich, they give me coffee.

Eating an ice cream cone texting with my thumbs flippin' off the asshole who pulled into my lane life could be longer than it's often cracked up to be We all get new cells every seven years.
I feel seven a day.
It's a good day to die again
Now they save me my place
Over there in the corner
And I never get tickets
Yeah, I only get warnings.
But when I was broke I needed it more
And now that I'm rich,
I get free coffee.
