

Give Judy My Notice

Ben Folds

Judy
Could anyone be loved anymore than I love you does it hurt you too?
But Judy
I've been feeling small too long I love you so but something's wrong

and I come running when you want me here and when you want me to, I disappear

Give Judy my notice

I knew if I made it easy for you you'd settle for me, yeah eventually
but Judy
I won't be your bitch anymore and follow you 'round and hold the door

and I can't do this any longer the vacuum left is so much stronger

Give Judy my notice
Give Judy my notice

Judy you know I'm not mad anymore at least most of the time but that could take a while I've been living just to see you smile every once in a while

Tears fall
but that don't mean nothing at all It's just cause I said it first yeah, that's why it hurts

And I'm not sorry if you're not sorry
And you're not sorry until I make you

Give Judy my notice
Give Judy my notice
Give Judy my notice
Give Judy my notice
My notice
