You're a prison I can't escape You're a decision I never make Heard me laughing You heard me weep and moan

Oh- when it's good, it's so, so good When it's gone, it's gone

They say time will kill the pain I say pain is gonna kill my time Lord won't you save me
Or leave me alone

Cause when it's good, it's so, so good When it's gone, it's gone
Oh- gone

I hang your picture right above my mind Don't do anything you can't deny I could never be your pawn

Oh- cause when it's good, it's so, so good When it's gone, it's gone

Some drink to remember

Some to forget

Some for satisfaction

Some to regret

I hope a brighter day to you I've shown

Oh- cause when it's good, it's so, so good And when it's gone, it's gone When it's gone, it's gone When it's gone, it's gone When it's gone, Oh- it's gone
