

Other Side

Ben Jelen

Don't go now, would you stay a while
I've got words that may make you smile
Hold my hand, take me to the end
Be the one and just be a friend
And I'll see you soon on the other side

Don't go now, would you stay some more
I've got life that you can't ignore
I'm on the brink, standing off the edge
I'm seeing time in a whole new way
'Cause I'm leaving soon for the other side

And I will be strong, no I won't be weak
Just carry me, carry me
Yes I will be strong, but when I'm gone
Just smile for me, smile for me

Now please go for a little while
And love your life while it still allows
Think of me if you find the time
And keep on keeping love alive
And I'll see you soon, on the other side
