

Stay

Ben Jelen

She wakes up and rolls into the kitchen
She turns on her favorite radio
She jumps on the bed kisses me as I'm sleeping
And her smile starts

She's amazing, ever changing
Oh, you'll feel like your sailing
Oh, you'll feel your life changing
Oh, she'll bring back that feeling
Oh, she'll have you beggin'
Please, please, please stay
Just stay

She's off to yoga just to clear her head out
Sometimes sees the world from upside down
She forgets about the song she's singing
As my smile starts

She's amazing, ever changing
Oh, you'll feel like your sailing
Oh, you'll feel your life changing
Oh, she'll bring back that feeling
Oh, she'll have you beggin'
Please, please, please stay
Just stay

I'll brush your hair
Tell you you're beautiful
When you wake up, stay awake at night
To watch you while you sleep
Be a confidant for secrets that you're keeping
I'll pick you up girl; I'll pick you up girl

Oh, you'll feel like your sailing
Oh, you'll feel your life changing
Oh, she'll bring back that feeling
Oh, she'll have you beggin'
Please, please, please stay
Just stay
