Give me
One more chance to answer for the needing
And take my rhyme
Away from me just let me get
Across the feelings
I don't think i'm aware of it today
Oh, it's the feelings
I don't think i'm aware of it today
And you
Give them
The answers that they wanted from the start
And leave me
Alone from your excuses
While i run from your abusiveness
To reasons i'm still here
You see, there's problems deeper than your own
The more that i stay, the more clear
I see there's problems deeper than our own
And you
Selfish
Self fish does what self fish wants
He swims beneath the cold fronts
And the rhythm that you give
You know, i never liked him anyway
The more that i stay, the more clear
I see there's problems deeper than our own
And you
