

Ache For You

Ben Lee

In the rain
I'm walking slowly
There's a light
In your apartment
I don't know why
I ache for you

And its alright if
You're undecided
Or if you're scared
That you might like it
Or if its true
I ache for you

There's no rhyme
And there's no reason
You're the secret in the back of my skull
There's no logic
So please believe me
Our love's confusing
But it never gets dull

It's getting late
Anticipation
And if we talk
Communication
And then you'll know
I ache for you

And yeah sometimes
It's just desire
Another problem that you really don't want
But anyway
I ache for you

There's no rhyme
And there's no reason
You know the secret in the back of my skull
There's no logic
So please believe me
My love's confusing
But it never gets dull
I ache for you

And I'm tired
Of so much wanting
And what if -
Don't even think it
But why not?

There's no rhyme
And there's no reason
You put a secret in the back of my skull
There's no logic
So please believe me
My love's confusing
But it never gets dull

There's no rhyme
And there's no reason
There's no logic
So please believe me
My love's confusing

I ache for you
