

Love Me Like The World Is Ending

Ben Lee

This is the first day of the future
and all I want is you.
I wear a pair of socks you left here
but I know, I know, I know nobody could ever fill your shoes.

I can't see so clearly when your smoke gets in my eyes.
Please me with your promises and hurt me with your lies.
Baby can you hear the message I am sending?
Love me like the world is ending.

This is the last day of existence
and all I want is you.
And there's a certain sadness
But I know, I know, I know the sky is what makes the ocean blue
I know, I know, I know the sky is what makes the ocean blue.

I can't see so clearly when your smoke gets in my eyes.
Please me with your promises and hurt me with your lies.
Baby can you hear the message I am sending?
Love me like the world is ending.

Love me like the world is ending.

And they all say to pour it has to rain.
So don't complain if we get wet
In the deep end.

I can't see so clearly when your smoke gets in my eyes.
Please me with your promises and hurt me with your lies.
Baby can you hear the message I am sending?
Love me like the world is ending.
Love me like the world is ending.

Come on and love me like the world is ending.
