

Perfect

Ben Moody

The stage is set, I'm growing restless
I've taken worse than you before
I don't want you to want me
Now I'm just fine as the failure and the whore

I'm not guilty, just convicted
More than you, I loathe my living hell
Having failed to prove a lover
Pleasure's gone, I'll take the dead one's dreaming well
Am I so small in your eyes?

You'll never be (perfect)
You'll never be (perfect)
You'll never be
You'll never be perfect enough for me

For what its worth, I won't forget you
Now I know how weak I was
Though you left me as a victim
All the scars have left me bulletproof
Am I so small in your eyes?

You'll never be (perfect)
You'll never be (perfect)
You'll never be
You'll never be perfect enough for me

Turn around and see the monster
Not the one you paint me as
Man alone and broken.
Hungry for the blood not pure like you

You'll never be (perfect)
You'll never be (perfect)
You'll never be
You'll never be perfect enough for me

You'll never be (perfect)
You'll never be (perfect)
You'll never be
You'll never be perfect enough for me
