

Run Away

Ben Moody

Days, I traveled on for days,
Through everything you threw at me.
I never saw the light.
Now, the pain keeps digging in,
Reminder of mistakes,
I never wish i made.

I don't wanna run away,
I don't wanna be the one who falls,
wanna stay but you wont change at all.

And now the fear,
That hides inside you.
Rushes out of every bone.
As I walk beside you,
I feal your hate surround me,
I don't wanna be you anymore .

I don't wanna run away,
I don't wanna be the one who falls,
wanna stay but you wont change at all.
(You won't listen to the world outside. You won't think I'll look inside.
I can't change you anymore!)

I don't wanna run away,
I don't wanna be the one who falls,
Wanna stay but you won't change at all.
(I don't wana run!)

I don't wanna run away,
I don't wanna be the one who falls,
wanna stay but you wont change at all.
(I don't wanna run!)

I lie on my own,
Never will I love another.
She knows, oh She knows,
Keeping the ghost of another.
I died all alone,
Never will hold another.
She knows, God! She knows,
I am the ghost of another.
I lie on my own,
Never will I love another.
She knows, oh She knows,
keeping the ghost of another.
I die all alone never,
will I hold another.
She knows. god! She knows,
I am the ghost of another."
