

I'm Okay

Ben Rector

Was it some mountain I can't climb
Something I can't leave behind
Well, baby I let it go
You know that I have tried
Lied awake through sleepless nights
Just to try to take this home

I'm done waiting on you to tell me
I'm okay
Cause I'm okay

And I can relieve myself a victim something someone scripted something someone's made
And I suppose that what I fear
Isn't change but sitting here
That I'll always be this way

I'm done waiting on you to tell me
I'm okay
Cause I'm okay
When my work here is through
I know who I'll see
And what He'll say

I'm done waiting on you to tell me
I'm okay
Cause I'm okay
