

Bad Dream

Ben's Brother

Watching me, watching you
Watching me touch your face
Touching me, touching me
With your grace

I can't sleep
'cause without you
Life is a bad dream

Nobody knows how it feels
To hear the slightest answer
From your lips straight to me
Like the flight of a dancer
Born to move coz without you
Life is a bad dream

There's no way you can leave now in the night
And I don't want to believe now that you might Go
No,
So open your eyes, open your eyes
I need you wide awake now
Come on get up, come on get up
'cause I'm having a breakdown
Show me your love, show me your love
Tell me that you'll never leave me

Cover my ears, cover my eyes
Don't tell me the bad news
I'll go for years, wondering why
Was there something I could do?
That's not right, that's not true
Tonight is a bad dream

There's no way you can leave now in the night
And I'm starting to believe now that you might Go
No,
So open your eyes, open your eyes
I need you wide awake now
Come on get up, come on get up
Coz I'm having a breakdown
Show me your love, show me your love
Tell me that you'll never leave me

All I own now, all I own now
Take it
All I own now, all I own now
Take it

Open your eyes, open your eyes
I need you wide awake now
Come on get up, come on get up
'cause I'm having a breakdown
Show me your love, show me your love
Tell me that you'll never leave me

So open your eyes, open your eyes
I need you wide awake now
Come on get up, come on get up
'cause I'm having a breakdown
Show me your love, show me your love
Tell me that you'll never leave me
