

I'm wandering alone in an open space
Looking around for a human trace
Along the edge of this satellite
Losing the route in this empty sky

I'm prey of the ghosts of this galaxy
Loosing myself in this extasy
No clock is turning to sign the time
Everything's floating through day and night

No noise is breaking my silent star
I'm on the run, i can go so far
Flying in absence of gravity
Feeling the vibe of eternity

This is the lesson i had to learn
This is the treasure i had to earn
I am the owner of nowhere land
Queen of a castle that's made of sand

Staring in front of the universe
Maybe someday i'll meet someone else
I'm sure i'll do it, but 'till that day
Here on my star i am just a castaway
