Them

Benedictum

They don't even know what time it is Always trying to get in my business
 Who are they what are they anyway
 Always twisting 'round the words I say

 They were born to follow
 We were to lead
 They will try to tear me down
 But they shall not succeed

 All the time they sit just telling lies
 Spend their idle time to criticize

 So tell them don't want to talk about it
 Tell them I'm gonna shout about it
 Tell them there's no doubt about it
 Tell them
 Tell them to bite me!

 They don't even know what I'm about
 They will never ever figure out
 They tell me I can't cuz I'm a chick
 I tell them kneel down and suck my dick

 They were born to follow
 We were to lead
 They will try to tear me down
 But they shall not succeed

 So tell them don't want to talk about it
 Tell them I'm gonna shout about it
 Tell them there's no doubt about it
 Tell them
 Tell them to bite me!
