

The Liar

Benny Benassi

Don't talk in vain, baby You're driving me insane

Don't say your affair is over Last night I saw you

Foreign arms around you Don't try to explain the problem
'cause it's you and me
How does it feel to be a liar?

I look into your eyes
And I say mine
Feeling your blood floating in my veins, I tell no lies
We belong together

I...I believe
our love will never die
I have met you in some other life
and you were mine
We belong together

It's so unusual You're falling in confusion
You didn't expect that feeling Come on and show me
At least a little shame, girl
Your time hasn't come for leaving How does it feel to loose a lover?

I look into your eyes
and I say mine
Feeling your blood floating
in my veins, I tell no lies
We belong together

I...I believe
our love will never die
I have met you in some other life
and you were mine
We belong together

You had my faith but you're just a betrayer And what you need now is more than a betrayer

I look into your eyes
and I say mine
in my veins, I tell no lies
We belong together

I...I believe

and you were mine
We belong together
