Here in my room all alone with a love that I can't see These walls are so bare And I close my eyes to see you When I'm lonely

Why are my arms so empty? I am possessed by love This is how I feel This is home to my hell When I'm lonely

Oh, my dear I can almost hear you say Oh, you only have to wait another day

Here in my room all alone
As the time passes slowly
Dreaming of your skin on my skin
And all the things that you show me

Why are my arms so empty?
For I am possessed by love
This is how I feel
This is home to my hell
When I'm lonely

Oh, my dear I can almost hear you say Oh, you only have to wait another day

Oh, my dear I can almost hear you say Oh, you only have to wait another day
