Swollen

Bent

With you in my garden more peaceful inside Don't need anything else to make me feel alive You electrify me and I want to be in your arms For always, for always

Our love is swollen

Made of the quietest shade of loud

Holds me like an anchor

Floats just like a cloud, a cloud

Our love is swollen

Made of the quietest shade of loud

Holds me like an anchor

Our love is swollen
Made of the quietest shade of loud
Holds me like an anchor
Floats just like a cloud, a cloud
