

Angel Eyes

Beres Hammond

Your eyes show me everything
All I need to know about you
Those eyes couldn't lie to me
Even if you wanted to

Blessed eyes, angel eyes
It's just now I realize
There is none to compare
No no no not anywhere
You got soul and much more
As my truth starts to unfold
Couldn't do without you
No no no not in my life
Why shouldn't I love you
And give you everything
After all you've been there for me all the way
Why shouldn't I cherish the ground that you walk on Come again my little sweetness make my day

Angel eyes, special eyes
Gives my heart good exercise
Nonstop company and joy
Since you've entered my world yeah

Your eyes show me everything
All I need to know about you
Your eyes couldn't lie to me
Even if they wanted to

After all a man got nothing else within his plan than to make a little dough
And let the good life flow
And it gets even better
He feels more comfortable
That someone in his world
Comes in the form of you
Didn't take the time to say I love you
After all these years
I'm glad it's not too late I'm singing now
Why shouldn't I love you and give you everything
After all you've been there for me all the way
Why shouldn't I cherish the very ground that you walk on Come again my little sweetness
Make my day yeah

Angel eyes, special eyes
It's just now I realize
There is none to compare
No no no not anywhere
You got soul and much more
As my truth starts to unfold
Couldn't do without you
