

Can't Stop A Man

Beres Hammond

Just wait a minute, wait a minute
Wait a minute before you say another word
Now tell me...

What can you do to stop a man from trying?
I said I wanna know now
Nothing you can do to stop a man from trying
I wanna know yes I wanna know now
What can you do to stop a man from trying?
I wanna know said I wanna know now
Nothing you can do to stop a man from trying

Oh not with that big broad smile and the sexy dress you wear
It's totally impossible for a man with eyes not to stare
There is no reason to be so uptight
Now when you got everything alright
You should know by now you're every man's fantasy

Hey girl check out your style, brothers going wild
It's hard to keep control when your right there on that throne
So little don't cramp my style
Wave your hands give me a smile
Cause after all I'm one of your fans
