

Lovely Day

Beres Hammond

On a lovely day
Chi-woi

Just like the rising morning sun
On a lovely day
My thought of you has just begun
Never fade away

There's no space for anything
Only me and you
And the joy my poor heart brings
I know it will be true

Cha-cha-cha-cha-chi-wo
On a lovely day
Cha-cha-cha-cha-chi-woi

And when I think of you sometimes
On a lovely day
I wish the memories in my mind
Never fade away

And if I say I love you now
Know it will be true
Let's start a brand new world and let it grow
For me and you

Cha-cha-cha-cha-chi-wo
On a lovely day
Cha-cha-cha-cha-chi-woi
Never fade away, woi...

On a lovely day, yeah, yeah

Hey

And when I think of you sometimes
On a lovely day
I wish the memories in my mind
Will never fade away

If I say I love you now
Know it will be true
Let's start a brand new world and let it grow
For me and you

Cha-cha-cha-cha-chi-woi
On a lovely day
Cha-cha-cha-cha-chi-woi
Hope it never fade away

Like the rising morning sun
On a lovely day
My thought of you has just begun
Never fade away

There's no space for anything

Only me and you
And the joy my poor heart brings
I know it will be true, yeah

On a lovely day
I hope it never fade away
