

My Pride And Joy

Beres Hammond

You'll be forever and always in my heart
Here's what could be sweeter, you think the same for me
Say you'll ever, be always be there for me
Announcing now to the world that you and you alone

Your my pride and joy
My heart and soul
My rhyme in song
My right, my wrong
And once again, on one of my crazy days
Hey, I see your face and all that stress is history

I'm forever indebted to your love
I wanna thank you lady for putting up with a man like me
You must be an angel and I'm not the perfect one
Bless whatever it is in you, that keeps you holding on

Now lemme tell you little things that you might not know
And little things I think you should know
Never leave you lonely in times of needs, no
And here's a little something to keep in your head
I do apologize if I ever made you sad
Yes I do love you
Oh I love you, yeah
