

All I Ever Need

Berlin

You can't kiss a yacht
Or cuddle a Rolls
Have a fight with a mansion
Or hug your pole

You can't laugh with cocaine
Get wasted with diamonds
Sleep with your gold
It blows

Cause the clock goes ticking by
All your money
And the clock goes ticking by
All your games

All that I ever need
Is inside of me now
Waiting for you

And if I ever believe
Love just isn't enough anymore
Then shoot me now

You can't choke a Renoir
Or fuck a Merlot
Whine at your big TV
Or sell out your soul

I tried to blame the champagne
And cry with a Warhol
You die alone
It blows

Cause your life goes flying by
All your money
And your life goes flying by
All the games

All that I ever need
Is inside of me now
Waiting for you

And if I ever believe
Love just isn't enough anymore
Then shoot me now
