

Scream

Berlin

Once I knew it all
Once I had control
Once I held the cross
Never let it go

Once I had taste
Once I crossed the line
Once it overflowed I
Lost my mind

The smell of you is sex
The thought of you is cream
The taste of you it makes me scream
The smell of you is sex
The thought of you is cream
The taste of you I want to scream

Once I knew it all
Once I had control
Once the shackles were locked
I didn't even know

Once I bit the fruit
Once I turned the key
Once is not enough when
You're deep in me

The smell of you is sex
The thought of you is cream
The taste of you it makes me scream
The smell of you is sex
The thought of you is cream
The taste of you I want to scream
