

Stronger Than Steel

Berlin

So many years you've been the sun
Forever shining on me and everyone

So many years and I never dreamed
One day you might need a light from me

Hearts can be broken but I know
Steel's the bond I have inside for you
Hearts can be broken but I won't
Together this love will see us through

'Cause I will be here beside you
Bright as the sun to light the path you're on
I'm here beside you
Stronger than steel when you need someone to lean on

So many times I missed the signs
So many years I walked through darkness deep inside
I never told you, you saved me then
Now this love will make you shine again

Hearts can be broken but I know
Love is the answer we've been waiting for Hearts can be broken but you won't
Stand all alone anymore

'Cause I will be here beside you
Bright as the sun to light the path you're on
I'm here beside you
Stronger than steel when you need someone to lean on

I'm here to remind you
Bright as the sun when all your hope is gone
I will be here beside you
Stronger than steel when you need someone to lean on
