

Snake Bit Again

Bernard Allison

I did it again, busted and blue
I pushed you too hard, I'm losing you
Your love is a gamble, and I fail everytime
Empty my pockets, and I lose every dime

I know our luck is gonna change real soon
I know trouble's gonna win in the end
Whoa, I'm snake bit again
Snake bit again
I can't ever win, trouble's my friend
I'm snake bit again

You don't know what cold is, till you lost your will
I gave up my soul baby, but I'm freezing still
I ain't here for forgiveness, just to take the poison away
I'm licking my wounds, I pray everyday

I know our luck is gonna change real soon
And I know trouble's gonna win in the end
Oh, I'm snake bit again
Snake bit again
I can't ever win, trouble's my friend
I'm snake bit again
