

You'll Feel It When You're Mine

Bernard Butler

You don't need a system to fly a kite
You don't need pictures to know when it's high
And it doesn't matter who you know, know why
'Cause you'll feel it when you're mine

You don't need to narrow to show me a sign
You won't need a mirror, just look in my eyes
And no matter what you done and no matter why
You'll feel it when you're mine

You'll feel it when you're mine
You'll feel it when you're mine
You'll feel it when you're mine

You'll feel it when you're mine
You'll feel it when you're mine
You'll feel it when you're mine

You'll feel it when you're mine
When you're mine, when you're mine
When you're mine, when you're mine
