

Battleships

Bernard Fanning

Battleship, battleship
Grey is the colour that I choose
Battleship, battleship
Grey is the colour without you

I have sipped, I have sipped
Oh on the bottle of untruth
I have sipped, I have sipped
Oh on the bottle of untruth

Battleship, battleship
Grey is the colour that I choose
Battleship, battleship
Grey is the colour that I use

I have slipped, I have slipped
Oh on the trouble that I brewed
I have slipped, I have slipped
Oh on the trouble that I brewed

Battleship, battleship
Grey is the colour that I choose
Battleship, battleship
Grey is the colour that I knew

You are exactly what I need to get me back up on my feet
I lost direction now I see
It's by your side that I should be
When I put myself into your place
I watched you drift so far away
And now this burden that we bear
We can rebuild we can repair

Battleship, battleship
Grey is the colour that I choose
Battleship, battleship
Grey is the colour without you
