

Inside Track

Bernard Fanning

There's only one way back
To the inside track of your love
I'm hanging on by the fingernails
To the back verandah rail

The tears, tears I've been crying
Filling up my eyes
Mean I can't see you walk away from me now
The sorrow, sorrow you're hiding today
Will surely come back to haunt you tomorrow

You tell me to loosen up
Stop treating you so rough all the time
There's only one way now
Gotta drive the demons out of my mind

The tears, tears I've been crying
Filling up my eyes
Mean i can't see you walk away from me now
The sorrow, sorrow you're hiding today
Will surely come back to haunt you tomorrow
Tomorrow

There's only one way back
To the inside track of your love
I'm hanging on by the fingernails
To the back verandah rail

The tears, tears I've been crying
Filling up my eyes
Mean I can't see you walk away from me now
The sorrow, sorrow you're hiding today
Will surely come back to haunt you tomorrow
