

Get What You Deserve

Bertine Zetlitz

It's as if I'm in the wrong house
I've been here before
It's as if I'm up the wrong drive
I know it's your door
You have got to give me something
To keep away the pain
'Cos I'm sleeping in the wrong bed
I'm going insane

If I fall, I will call
'Cos you get what you deserve
And your eyes have suddenly ripped
right through my skin
If I fall, I will call
Yeah, you get what you deserve
Though I can't find a reason

I am driving in the wrong lane but something's got to give
I am shooting up the wrong vein a girl has got to live
'Cos you've got to give me something
To stop the pouring rain
Baby, if you give me nothing
There's nothing to gain

If I fall, I will call
'Cos you get what you deserve
And your eyes have suddenly ripped
right through my skin
If I fall, I will call
Yeah, you get what you deserve

And your eyes have suddenly ripped
right through my skin
If I fall, I will call
Yeah, you get what you deserve

And your eyes have suddenly ripped
right through my skin
If I fall, I will call
Yeah, you get what you deserve
Though I can't find a reason

I can't find a reason