

If You Were Mine

Bertine Zetlitz

I will wake up every night
Just in case and for no reason
It takes one to make things right
Innocence is out of season

If diamonds are forever
I will buy you fairy lights
Fairy lights will make you soften
Trying hard to get this right
Should have held you close more often

So easy to be clever
So easy to be clever, no

That is what I'd do if you were mine
I would keep you spared until the end of time
That is what I'd do if you were mine
I would keep you spared until the end of time

Sometimes I will let you go
That's the way to win you over
Saying yes when meaning no
I'll let it down in cover (

If diamonds are forever
I would buy you fairy lights
Fairy lights will break you gently
It takes two to win a fight
Softened every blow you've sent me

So easy to say never
So easy to say never, no

That is what I'd do if you were mine
Sugar-coat my kisses 'til you're feeling fine
That is what I'd do if you were mine
Sugar-coat my kisses 'til you're feeling fine

That is what I'd do if you were mine
I would keep you spared until the end of time
That is what I'd do if you were mine
Sugar-coat my kisses 'til you're feeling fine
