

Sleep Through The Storm

Bertine Zetlitz

(Hello)

Why do you think that I bother'
I know that you're not 'for real'
I should have hit on your brother
That way you'd know how I feel

I'll just go with you
And your dreams and your schemes
And your unpredictability
You make shiver when warm

I'll just go with you
And your charms, in your arms
Total instability
You make me sleep through the storm

My baby says I'm a dreamer
All that I touch turns to dust
Sometimes he call me a screamer
Smile and he'll think
It's with lust

I'll just go with you
And your treacherous ways
Always unfulfilling me
You make me shiver when warm

I'll just go with you
And your viperous gaze
Boy, you're always thrilling me
You make me sleep through the storm

I'll just go with you
And your treacherous ways
Always unfulfilling me
You make me shiver when warm

I'll just go with you
And your viperous gaze
Boy, you're always thrilling me
You make me sleep through the storm

I'll just go with you

You make me sleep through the storm
