And after a thousand years Satan freed himself from the abyss Nations from all over the world Were united under pentagram

Demons
Hungry for revenge
Demons
Thirsty of God's blood

As many as grains of sand They came to surround their enemy In city loved by the God They are ready to fight

Attack
Legions are screaming
Attack
Carnage have started

Demons
Hungry for revenge
Demons
Thirsty of God's blood

Final battle has finished White horse rides bleads, his eyes fades Sword drowns in God's heart, heaven in flames

Victory Triumph of demons Victory Triumph of the Beast

666 Forever!!!
