

Come on In

Besech

today is the day
you reveal yourself to me please don't speak cause i'll greet you, i'll greet you with my kiss i watched you from my corner i felt your eyes from here i knew that i adored you when you heard, when you heard me say come on in, come on in to my world tonight i want to feel you, feel your life through mine

i want to see you, see your eyes catch the sun just think about all we will go through it'll take time a lifetime

a lifetime to proceed

i open my life wider i crawl inside your skin you make my body shiver when you hear, when you hear me say

i want to see you, see your eyes catch the sun
