

We Could Run

Beth Ditto

On television, kings and queens
Live the lives of people's dreams
You and I are human beings
Living, breathing beings
There are rules that I'm in to break
You could call this a great mistake
We could always play it safe
But that's no fun

We could run
We could run

Hold me close and hold me fast
I'd never thought you'd ever rest
Some moments were meant to last
But this ain't one

We could run
We could run
We could run
We could run
We could run
We could run
We could run
We could run

This is the last time, I mean it
The final dance of the evening
They couldn't call the final ball

We could run
We could run
We could run
We could run
We could run
We could run

We could run
