

House Of Sin

Beth Hart

Violins hear em play
On the fence where I lay
It's where I lay
Tumble down to the ground
Watch em crash not a sound
There's no sound

And you say that it don't matter to me
And you say that all this love's for free
And you say it don't matter to me
It don't matter to me

Take me down
From consciousness
Hold me now
In decadence
Lay me in
Your house of sin
Take me down
There's no sound

Hold me now
I'm breaking in Consciousness
House of sin
Somebody swim
Tumble down onto my knee
Watch it burn
Hold your scream
Somebody sing

And you say it's nothing to me
And you say that all this war's for free
And you say still it ain't nothing to me
And I would never agree

So take me now
From consciousness
Hold me now
In decadence
Lay me in
Your house of sin
Take me down
Take me now
There's no sound

Just look around
Your consciousness if friggin weak
Just look around
Violins screaming at your feet
Just look around
You're slurring everytime you speak
