

All For The Love

Beth Nielsen Chapman

All for the love we want
All for the love we need
Deep in the lonely heart
Winter holds the seed

Reach till you know how far
Trust till you know how true
Give till you know how much
Loves inside of you

For this we shed our skin
Feel where each breath begins
Bleed as we pick the rose
Fall back with both eyes closed

All for the love we want
All for the love we want
For this we shed our skin
Feel where each breath begins

Bleed as we pick the rose
Fall back with both eyes closed
All for the love we want
All for the love we want
All for the love we want
