

Fair Enough

Beth Nielsen Chapman

Fair enough
There's nothing more to say
You closed the door today
You chose to walk away

Fair enough
You won't see the tears i cry
Spare me your sad good-byes
Let's keep this cut and dry

'Cause if my love can't stop you
Words won't make you change your mind
I took a chance to love you
You broke my heart this time

Fair enough
This lesson i have learned
Someday the tides will turn
And you will cry

And if my love can't stop you
Words won't make you change your mind
I took a chance to love you
You broke my heart this time

Fair enough
Someone leaves someone stays
Someone lost but who's to say
You risk it all to walk away

Fair enough
The sun will shine again
Somehow my heart will mend
And I'll be fine

And if my love can't stop you
Words won't make you change your mind
I took a chance to love you
You broke my heart this time

Fair enough
