

Shadows

Beth Nielsen Chapman

Fine, fine
Everything remembering
Its own time
Every wave surrenders
At the shoreline

Time peels back the sky
And the clouds
Hurl shadows at the wind

Oh, yes
Pay no mind to me
It's only hopeless
By a small degree

Let's watch the sunset
Slide into the sea
While the clouds
Hurl shadows at the wind

And love is still
A word held in my heart
A candle for the times
The world goes dark

Left, right
I don't know these steps
And there's a spot light
Screaming through my head

Oh, hold me so tight
We'll dance until we're dead
While the clouds
Hurl shadows at the wind

And love is still
A word held in my heart
My candle for the times
The world goes dark

Dream daze, ending in a sigh
And it's the same haze
Hung up in that sky
I'm singing both sides, now
It helps me cry

While the clouds
Hurl shadows at the wind
(I've looked at clouds from both sides)
While the clouds
Hurl shadows at the wind
