

That's The Easy Part

Beth Nielsen Chapman

Nights alone silent telephone
The curtains on my window dark and drawn
Sleepless dream It would almost seem
The nights would drive me crazy now you're gone
But that's the easy part when I'm alone and I can cry
That's the easy part don't have to smile
Don't have to try to hide my broken heart
That's the easy part
Daylight's edge dances on my window ledge
When it's time to face the world again
Hours loom in the desert of the afternoon
Till I drive home and watch the sun descend
And that's the easy part when I'm alone and I can cry
That's the easy part don't have to smile
Don't have to try to hide my broken heart
That's the easy part
Oh that's the easy part when I'm alone and I can cry
That's the easy part don't have to smile
Don't have to try to hide my broken heart
That's the easy part
Oh that's the easy part
Oh that's the easy part
Easy part easy
Mmm that's the easy part
That's the easy part
