I'm that great divide That never was at all

That's neither large nor heavy That's neither light or small There always was and will be Forever and through all time

Cause here and there and nowhere always is

It's this I am I find
It's this I am I find

When all is one another Yes one is all mine Serenely flowing ever Beyond the tide

The flower blows away
Cause I am but one too
Unless I pray and break up
Really, not at all

A dream smiles at me I've been here all the time I've been here all the time It's this I am I find.
