

Feel This

Bethany Joy Lenz

It's gotta be this one
You don't have to fake it
You know I can take it
What if I told you your tears haven't been ignored
And everything that was taken can be restored

Feel this
Can you feel this
My heart beating out of my chest
Feel this
Can you feel this
Salvation under my breath

It's gotta be just right
The soul and spirit
The chord and the lyric
What if I told you that innocence is yours
And the beauty you have now is brighter than before
Before

Feel this
Can you feel this
My heart beating out of my chest
Feel this
Can you feel this
Salvation under my breath

Let go
Let go and believe
Let go, let go and believe
Let go, let go and believe
Let go

Feel this
Can you feel this
My heart beating out of my chest
Feel this
Can you feel this
Salvation under my breath
