

One More Thing

Bethany Joy Lenz

Well I guess I can't argue with you
If you think you've found her
So long then, say bye bye
I'm no good in a competition
I'm better off alone yeah
So bye baby bye
Hey what's the matter boy
I thought you said you were leaving me
I ain't crying cuz it don't suite my pedigree oh
And one more thing

You missed out big time baby
I'm the best damn lover you would've ever had
Missed out big time baby
And I won't be coming around here again

What's done is done now
I can't change it all around no
Still got my reputation
Can't think of a better way to go then
Leaving you with her
Well good luck with that one boy

Hea-hea-heartbreaker looks like
He is loosing his nerve a bit
Honey don't you know
I've been sitting here waitin' for it
Oh, and one more thing

You missed out big time baby
I'm the best damn lover you would've ever had
Missed out big time baby
And I won't be coming around here again

Hey what's the matter boy
Thought you said you were leaving me
Fragile little ego his got there doesn't he?
Oh, and more thing

You missed out big time baby
I'm the best damn lover you would've ever had
Missed out big time baby
And I won't be coming around here again
Missed out big time baby
I'm the best damn lover you would've ever had
Missed out big time baby
And I won't be coming around here again
You missed out big time baby
You missed out big time baby
You missed out big time baby
I'm the best damn lover you would've ever had
Mmmmm... yeah
