

Dark Night

Beto Vázquez Infinity

Is a mixture of love and lust Together we go round our dreams
When you think you fall on deaf ears
I will be close to you

When the dark tries to embrace me At the night
this silence is my destiny
In my dreams
I wish to see your smile
In my dreams
I miss your warm and sweet embrace

Dark night
is a sigh of two hearts I need to forget this cold
When I contemplate this dark night the wind took my last tears

when the silence comes to me my pure and beautiful dream
When the night comes to you
You keep it for me
keep it for me
keep it for me
