Love Me With A Feeling

Bette Midler

"All right! She's gonna sing!" "All right, we all turn to page 438. Now, you know we all gonna sing along. Oh, I do love a revue."

Ohhhhhh! You know, women don't like this woman, 'cause I always speak my mind. But the men ain't crazy about me, 'cause I love to take my time.

If you're gonna love this woman, gotta love me with a thrill, 'cause, baby, if you don't, I gotta find a man who will.

Love me with a feeling. You got to love me with a feelin'. You got to love me with a feelin', or you don't love me at all.

You know, I'm the kind of woman, I don't want no halfway stuff. If you're gonna turn me loose, baby, be sure I had enough.

You know, the cops once took me in, but I did not need the bail. I just shook it for the judge and he, he put that cop in jail.

You got to love me with a feeling. You got to love me with a feelin'. You got to love me with a feelin', or you don't love me at all.

"All right, Milledge, this one's for you." There was one cat who could not make it, and Milledge was his name. The only cat I ever knew who left before he came.

There he's a-standing, drinkin' pop from a paper cup. But when it's time for gettin' down, Milledge can not get it up!

You gotta love me with a feelin'. Yeah, love, love me with a feelin'. You got to love me with a feelin', or you can't love me at all.
