

One More Round

Bette Midler

5, 6, 5, 6, 7, Let's go!
Let's go, go, go!
Let's go, let's go, let's really go!

One more round, girls.
Let the Boy Scouts hear you.
One for your mother and two for your teachers and
three for the pretty boys in a row.
One for the money and two to get ready and three now your ready and four to go.
Let's go!
Let's go, go!
Let's go, let's go, let's really go!

Girl to girl, there's nothing like how they understand.
Heal the wounds when the boys bite.
They're just holding your hand.
Can't explain to a man how those girls know. Girls show strength that living can bring.
So strong, so long,
songs the girls sing.

(Four part round)
One more round, girls.
Let the Boy Scouts hear you.
One for your mother and
two for your teachers and
three for the pretty boys in a row.
One for the money and
two to get ready and three now you're ready and four to go.
Let's go!

Do do do do do
Do do do do do
Do do do do do do do do do Do do do do.
