

On My Own

Better Luck Next Time

I can't work this out on my own I feel that I need you right here by my side, we'll be just fine; 'till the end of time, you're all that's on my mind
And if you leave me here on my own, I feel that I would have to break down and cry to clear my mind; is this really right?
Our love will never die

And I, I won't feel the same You're playing my heart like a game, and I feel ashamed to tell you what I think I have no time to blink I'll open my eyes once you're gone; goodbye and so long

I'm on my own now, it won't be long before I drown
So meet me halfway between a smile and a frown
I found you once before, but I have not given thought to being someone I'm not and now I'm on my own

I feel so alone on my own I can't help but think what our love could've been, but that was then, now this is the end;
it's something I can't mend I never thought I'd be on my own I felt that you were just the one for my needs, but now I see we weren't meant to be;
we'll meet eventually
