

She Loves Me Not

Better Luck Next Time

Forget me not, I'm here just where you left me near the sounds of oceans crashing down I sit and stare, but voices everywhere are asking me, "Should I care?"

The sun goes down, and still my hopes aren't up; it's always be en just me and bitter luck
I see her wake forgetting how to cry; why then, oh why can't I?

So I'll try not to read between the lines if you give me what i s mine
I'll find my way, incomplete is my tell-tale heart's defeat

Begin with feeling, turn it into lies; kiss me once then say yo ur sweet goodbye
I hate to mention, but have you forgot the "She loves me, she l oves me not...?"

So I'll try not to read between the lines if you give me what i
s mine
I'll find my way, incomplete is my tell-tale heart's defeat

Buried deep in mixed emotion lies a ruin in your heart's confus ion
Kiss me once then say your sweet goodbye
