

Nameless

Better Off

It's been a long time now,
Since I last talked to you.
I walk the streets at night,
Alone and missing you.
I miss our late night talks,
And the way I'd hold you close,
But nothing seems to matter.
Cause it's you I miss the most.

If every song that I sang,
Could make you smile,
I'd sing you right to sleep.
If every song that I sang,
Could make you mine,
I'd sing you back in love with me.

Still walking and wishing,
You back into my life.
Just dreaming and hoping,
You'd come back to me one night.
And that things would perfect,
And nothing could wrong,
And sometime you'd realize,
You and I were perfect all along.

If every song that I sang,
Could make you smile,
I'd sing you right to sleep.
If every song that I sang,
Could make you mine,
I'd sing you back in love with me.

Someday soon you'll see,
How you're missin' out.
Things could never be,
Worse than they are now.
It shouldn't be like this.
You shouldn't be gone.
It shouldn't be like this.
I shoulda been there all along.

If every song that I sang,
Could make you smile,
I'd sing you right to sleep.
If every song that I sang,
Could make you mine,
I'd sing you back in love with me.
If every song that I sang,
Could make you smile,
I'd sing you right to sleep.
If every song that I sang,
Could make you mine,
I'd sing you back in love with me.
