

Fit

Better Than Ezra

I want to stop
I want to find
I need to know
Where you go to hide
Cause I'm out of breath
My air is gone
Running with you
Being alone

Cause you really want to settle the truth
Let me be the one to offer you proof

Oh how you fit me
Oh how you do
You know that you only
I'm head over you
Oh how it hit me
I'm caught up and bruised
Despite all the cynical lies
I finally found a piece that fit in my life

I was adrift
out on my own
You came a long and carried me home
Cause you are a spark
A distant headlight
I can't stop my eyes
From keeping you in sight

Cause I'm not looking for a broken excuse
But I need you now to heal all my wounds

Oh how you fit me
Oh how you do
You know that you only
I'm head over you
Oh how it hit me
I'm caught up and bruised
Despite all the cynical lies
I finally found a piece that fit...

Cause I made them
Faded some
Look at what I've become
And my eyes are drawn till you came along
The world is quite confused
You're my only absolute

Oh how you fit me
Oh how you do
You know that you only
I'm head over you
Oh how it hit me
I'm caught up and bruised
Despite all the cynical lies

And Oh how you fit me

Oh how you do
You know that you only
I'm head over you
Oh how it hit me
I'm bound up in you
Despite all the cynical lies
I finally found a piece that fit in my life
Oooooh ooh ooooo
