

Live Again

Better Than Ezra

Don't fear,
Even though you're at a loss.
I'm numb,
A shell of empty thoughts.
But you glow,
You stretch and pull me out.
Does that trouble you?
Do I trouble you?

Love me
Hate me
Make me live again
I need you around
Heal me
Hurt me
Make me live again
I want you around

So long
I never had experienced
This bliss.
So how could I resist?
And I'm fine,
A little light-headed.
Does that worry you?
I didn't mean to worry you.

Love me
Hate me
Make me live again
I need you around
Heal me
Hurt me
Make me live again
I want you around

Now, retreating from the light.
I love it when we fight:
It makes me think
At least you still care.

Give up, you're not going anywhere.
Moonlight illuminates your stare.
It's great captivating you.
Does that trouble you?
Do I trouble you?

Love me
Hate me
Make me live again
I need you around
Heal me
Hurt me
Make me live again
I want you around
